P.W.D. 9) The Main question - re the appointment of Salaried Vendors was dropped in the R.A. All that was left of the question to be done was that Stamps papers &c should be made available for sale at fixed places during fixed hours. Action has been taken for prescribing the hours of sale. SUBJECT No. 40.

Appointing salaried stamp vendors.

Mr. C. Chennakeshaviah, Chitaldrug Taluk, and Mr. R. Srinivasa Rao, Chitaldrug Municipality.

Mr. C. Chennakesaviah.—This seems an unimportant subject. We also thought it for some time as too small a subject to come before the Representative Assembly, but stamp vendors are not available easily and our grievance is great. Sometimes, the stamp vendor has stamp papers but says he has not, just to take a present for selling the paper. Most of us know what present is to be paid for an eight-anna stamp and what for a one-rupee stamp, etc. We are at the mercy of the stamp vendors. We want salaried men to sell stamps at specified places during specified hours.

Temporary Member.—But now is there no time at which stamp vendors are required to be present at district offices or anywhere?

Mr. Chennakesaviah.—Absolutely none.

Dewan.—So you are not pleading exclusively for salaried vendors? If arrangements are made for stamp papers, etc., being available at fixed places and during fixed hours for sale to the public it will be enough. The suggestion is noted.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. R. 6486/St.14-19-2 dated - 2nd December 1919 and subsequent D.O.letter No.R.3381/St dated 7th - September 1920, I have the honor to state that the appointments of salaried vendors will not cure the evil complained of by the Representative Assembly Members; what is required is that a sufficient number of vendors should be licensed to meet public requirements - and that these vendors should be bound to vend stamps during certain hours failing which their licenses should be cancelled; The local Officers may also be asked to pay surprise visits to ensure that the hours are observed by these vendors.

2. In Taluk Head Quarter towns stamp vendors may be given - - - facility to sell the stamps at the Taluk Office, and in the issue of licenses preference may be given to applicants who are prepared to sell the stamps regularly during office working hours in the Taluk office, courts or other public places.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K R Srinivasa Iyengar
